The MSU EDA University Center for Regional Economic Innovation presents our

2013 WEBINAR SERIES

Urban Gardening

A socioeconomic study and documentary film

Gerald D. Charbonneau
Julie A. Pulgini
Aaron Guay
Charles Derry

Wednesday March 13, 2013 10:00 am

Charbonneau, Pulgini, Guay, and Derry are all affiliated with Madonna University in Livonia, The REI Network develops and identifies innovative economic Derry are all affiliated with Madonna University in Livonia, and are collaborating on a research project - a documentary film on the impacts of urban gardening/small scale farming on underserved communities. The project includes over 50 interviews with gardeners, community members, volunteers and elected officials whose lives are all impacted by urban gardening.

distressed regions throughout Michigan.

This webinar is supported in part pursuant to the receipt of financial assistance and support from the United States Department of Commerce-Economic Development Administration. The statements, findings, conclusions and recommendations are solely those of the authors and publishers and do not necessarily reflect the views of any federal agency or Michigan State University.

development tools, models, policies and practices in support of innovative economic development strategies with promise to yield high-growth entrepreneurship and job creation in

Questions? Contact REI at (517) 353-9555